

Building Strong Teams

A cohort-based coaching program for teams in legal services nonprofits

Overview

Legal services nonprofits rely on a variety of types of teams to achieve their mission, and how a team works together has a dramatic impact on how successful the team is in meeting its core purpose and goals. Today's complex, volatile, and fast-moving environment requires teams to be increasingly skillful in how they interact, communicate, manage conflict, find alignment, make decisions, and build inclusion, equity, and trust.

Team Coaching empowers teams to work toward ongoing development as a group, while strengthening alignment, collaboration, adaptability, and performance. The coach and the team work together in a co-created partnership that supports the team in reflecting on its dynamics and relationships to maximize the team's abilities and potential to reach its common purpose and shared goals.

This group Team Coaching Program will bring together a cohort of a small number of teams from legal services nonprofits in the United States to learn and apply best practices for teams. Over a six-month period, teams in this online program will participate in 4 online workshops with the full cohort of teams and 4 individualized team coaching sessions (online) designed to support each team in applying the concepts and best practices to the team's unique function, goals, and organizational context.

How It Works

From January to June 2023, teams from legal services nonprofits will come together to form a cohort that will learn together in 4 group workshops and will also participate in 4 individualized team coaching sessions with expert team coach Julia Wilson. The program takes place on zoom and consists of the following components:

Full Cohort Workshops	Team Coaching Sessions	Independent Team Work
 The full cohort of teams will come together for 4 online workshops (3 hours each). The workshops will cover core concepts and best practices for teams and provide time for teams to work in their own breakout groups to begin to apply the learnings to their work. Total: 12 hours	 Between the cohort workshops, each team will work directly with Julia in 4 online team coaching sessions (2 hours each, scheduled based on the team's availability). The coaching sessions will support the team in applying the concepts and practices, deepening the learning, & implementing change. Total: 8 hours	 Each team will design its own unique action items that the team members will work on together between the cohort workshops and team coaching sessions to continue to apply the concepts and practices and implement change. Total: approximately 10 hours

Types of Teams and Required Participation

This group Team Coaching Program is designed for partnerships and teams from legal services nonprofits. Teams must have at least 2 and no more than 7 members. Examples of two-person partnerships might include Executives and Deputy Directors or Executives and Board Chairs. Examples of larger teams might include management or leadership teams, program teams, or other functional teams. The partnerships and teams must already exist within the organization's structure (i.e., the team should not be formed solely for the purpose of this team coaching program). If there is a role that is designated as the leader of the team, that person must participate in the Team Coaching Program.

For a team to be able to participate, all team members must commit to participating in the 4 full cohort workshops (dates below), 4 team coaching sessions (scheduled based on the team's availability), and the team's independent work between the workshops and coaching sessions. All workshops and coaching sessions will take place online on zoom.
